"No man is so humble that he cannot see something to admire in him," says an exchange. "Even a pair of pins has its fine points."

It is said that Mr. Carnegie receives an average of 300 begging letters a day. It is evident that if Uncle Andy disapproved it will be his own fault.

Forty barrels of Jackson county molasses, shipped to Biloxi by Mr. Skinner who resides near Fontainebleau, brought him 80 cents per gallon. This is no fairy tale, but an actual fact.

The mammoth water tank at the depot, which has been in course of construction for some time, is now almost completed. It is by far the largest tank between Mobile and New Orleans.

We regret to report that Mrs. Whitte, nee Miss Georgia Davis, still remains seriously ill. Her many friends earnestly hope that a change for the better will soon set in and that she will be speedily restored to health.

Mrs. A. Estlin is preparing to build an addition to her restaurant. Lumber is now being placed on the ground. We understand that she also contemplates erecting a new store building to replace the one recently destroyed by fire.

A defective chimney came near causing the destruction of the cottage occupied by Lucian Westbrook, last Tuesday night. Fortunately the fire was discovered before it had gained much headway and was extinguished without great damage.

In our item last week about the coming Mardi Gras ball we inadvertently omitted the name of E. Downing from the committee in charge. Mr. Downing is one of the head men in the company and always takes a prominent part in the committee work.

The fire alarm was sounded Wednesday noon. Some weeds were being burned and the high wind carried the flames over into the yard of Mrs. Conklin and seriously threatened her new residence. Prompt assistance soon placed the property out of danger.

The Board of Aldermen have finally arranged for the purchase of ten thousand barrels of shells for use on the streets and will commence receiving shipments sometime next month. This is good news for the streets are in bad shape and need the shells very much.

It is rumored that the L. & N. contemplates running all of her fast trains through Ocean Springs without stopping in the near future. If they do every citizen in Ocean Springs should get on his war paint and let the railroad people understand plainly that they won't stand for any such deal. However, the report may be without foundation, so there's no use "holiering" before we are hurt.

Mrs. Rudolph Pfefferle, an old and respected citizen of this place, died Sunday last and was buried in the Catholic cemetery Monday. She had been invalid for the past two years. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Peter de Gruyter at St. Alphonsus' Church, and were largely attended. Mrs. Pfefferle's husband was once a prominent contractor and builder, but died some years ago. She had lived here more than thirty years. No members of her immediate family survive her.

It would be a good thing if several more citizens were not down in various parts of town for the use of the fire company. They are needed to do the small work that should be allowed to delay the work. We would suggest that the Board of Aldermen arrange for the building of a number of these reservoirs, and assess the cost to the adjacent property owners. Such a thing is not a property owner in town but would be willing to pay his small pro rata for a cistern to protect his place in case of fire.

The next of the series of entertainments given by the Southern Lyceum Bureau, which is backed by some of our most prominent citizens, will occur on Friday, Jan. 22, at Firemen's Hall. The entertainers on this occasion will be Hendrickson and Rosant, magicians, shadowgraphs, jugglers and manipulators. The fact that they are sent out by the Southern Lyceum Bureau is a guarantee of a good clean show, and this fact is amply borne out by the newspaper reports wherever they have exhibited. All will remember the excellent entertainment of the Chicago Glee Club. Everybody was pleased. The coming show stands in the same class and everybody is guaranteed his or her money's worth. The Progress speaks for them a crowded house.

School Notes.

Our enrollment now stands at 161 for the season.

Please do not forget that our second term begins Monday, Jan. 25th.

Alice Martin, Frances and Brownee Hubbs and Katie Starks entered school recently.

We believe that some of our patrons seem to think that it makes very little difference whether pupils in the primary grades are in school regularly or not, but if you could see how fast such pupils are being left behind, I am quite sure all would attend more regularly, unless prevented by sickness. We would, therefore, urge every patron to let their children be present every day, for it pays.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all who helped us in the art exhibit. While from a financial standpoint the exhibit was not a great success, yet from many others it was. We feel sure that the school will be helped in many ways by having had the exhibit, and we are sure of a few pictures, but not as many as we could use.

Respectfully, H. G. McGowan.

A PRISONER IN HER OWN HOUSE.

Mrs. W. H. Laysch, of 1001 Agnes Ave., Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "would keep me indoors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend of mine gave me a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured." This remedy is for sale by Ocean Springs Drug Store.

Card of Thanks.

Gentlemen of Ocean Springs Fire Co. No. 1. I wish to extend to you the thanks of those connected with the exhibit held in your hall last week. I am quite sure you have aided one of the best means of culture and refinement possible in school work for the children of Ocean Springs, the purchasing of suitable reproductions of the world's masterpieces for the rooms of the public school.

Respectfully,
H. G. McGowan.

SERIOUS STOMACH TROUBLE CURED.

I was troubled with a distressing stomach, sour stomach and vomiting spells, and can truthfully say that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me.—Mrs. T. V. WILLIAMS, Lainsburg, Mich. These tablets are guaranteed to cure every case of stomach trouble of this character. For sale by Ocean Springs Drug Store.
